

Working document annexed to WP 3. TASK 2

PLANNING AND ORGANISATION OF THEMATIC TRAINING PROGRAMMES / WORKSHOPS

Capacity building in the area or field of professionalism has played a lot in human resource attainment. Cognizance of the fact that in the area of veterinary medicine, Animal production, food safety, legislation and veterinary administration, the professionals need constant or continuing education in veterinary sciences in order to fight or face the present world food scarcity and shortages, disease outbreak etc, this WP3. Task2 scheme has been deemed necessary especially in the third world countries in order to create and maintain a high level and outstanding profile in the above cited courses.

Short courses shall be organised in the CEMAC region in order to up lift, refresh and inspire professionals working in both public and parapublic structures.

AIM: Holistic capacity building.

SPHERES: In the CEMAC Region

- Universities
- Ministries
- Private practitioners

AREAS: 1. Veterinary Medicine

2. Animal Production and Health
3. Food Safety and Animal welfare
4. Legislation and Veterinary Public Health Administration.
5. Fisheries and Wildlife.
6. Veterinary communication skills.
7. Biotechnology of Reproduction:
 - Artificial Insemination
 - Embryology
 - Cell and Tissue transfer
 - Modern methods of identifying pregnancy in animals
(Echo equipments)

ORGANISATION

This thematic and continued training shall be carried out every year during the months of June – August. (12 weeks). The courses shall be organised in to two categories:

A. Candidates with terminal decrees:

- BAC + 3, 4 and 5
- DVM, B.Sc
- Engineers

- Animal Scientists.

B. Candidates with:

- BAC + 1 & 2
- Veterinary nurses
- Livestock Technicians/ Fisheries/ Aquaculture
- Assistant Nurses

LEGISLATION AND VETERINARY PUBLIC HEALTH ADMINISTRATION.

COURSES

1. Understanding the meaning and scope of Public Health Administration (PHA).
2. Formulate a functional and popular definition for PHA
3. Knowledge of the elements of PHA
 - Organisation and staffing
 - Planning and direction in control of staff
 - Budgeting
 - Communication
4. Types of administration
5. History of PHA
6. Various schools of thought regarding PHA
7. Functions and rules of the administrator
8. Legal aspects and implications of PHA
9. Financial constraints
10. Influence of politics, socio-cultural factors on PHA

COURSE STRUCTURE

Period: One week (2hrs of lectures per day amounting to 2 x 6 = 12hrs)

End of Session evaluating exercise: 4hrs

Field Trip:

- World Health Organisation (WHO) 2hrs
- Food and Agricultural Organisation 2hrs
- Centre Pasteur Yaoundé 2hrs
- National order of Veterinary Doctors 2hrs

Total number of hours for the training: 25hrs